

FREE Lunch & Learn Forum

for Multi-Unit Housing Providers Interested in Smoke-Free Policies

February 11, 2015 from 12pm to 1pm

(Rescheduled from December 15 due to weather)

Presentation and Discussion Topics

- ✓ HUD Announcement: Housing Authorities to be Smoke-Free
- ✓ Going Smoke-Free: Strategies to Support Enforcement

Please join us for our 2nd quarterly Learning Forum!

When: Thursday, February 11, 2016 from 12pm-1pm (lunch provided)

Location: NEW LOCATION: Jefferson County Public Health
645 Parfet Street, Lakewood, CO 80215
(2 blocks east of Simms between 6th Ave. Frontage Rd. and 8th Ave.)

Who: Denver and Jefferson County Multi-Unit Housing Providers

Questions: Contact Jefferson County Public Health at 303-275-7555 or dviveret@jeffco.us

Rsvp: By Tuesday, February 9, 2016 at: bit.ly/Feb11LunchLearn
(URL is case sensitive)

About the Providers' Learning Forums

Denver Public Health and Jefferson County Public Health are working together with grant funds to offer information, technical assistance and resources to help providers interested in implementing no smoking policies. Providers' Learning Forums are held bi-monthly and include free lunch and opportunities to learn more about what you need to transition to a smoke-free building. These services/resources are made possible through voter-approved Amendment 35 tobacco excise tax revenues.